Our Conference in February 2019 as in the case of our November 2017 Conference will also be aligned with the 6th session of the Asia Pacific Forum on Sustainable Development (APFSD) to be held in March 2019 in Bangkok which will be the regional level forum before the UN High Level Political Forum (HLPF) in New York in July 2019. The HLPF theme for 2019 is “Empowering people and ensuring inclusiveness and equality in Asia and the Pacific” and it will focus on the following cluster of goals:

- SDG 4: Quality Education
- SDG8: Decent Work and Economic Growth
- SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities
- SDG 13: Climate Action
- SDG 16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions
- SDG 17: Partnership for the Goals

About the college:

St. Philomena’s College throughout its 72 years of existence has carved a special niche in the city of Mysore imparting value based quality education to the needy in the surrounding without any discrimination. Today being typically a global village, it attracts students from around 30 countries and 20 states of India . Recognized as a college of excellence, St. Philomena’s not only strives to promote academic excellence but also protects and conserves the environment through various means. Conducting the proposed conference will help the college to conscientise the students about the global and local efforts to evolve sustainable life styles for the good of the planet.

Objectives:

- To facilitate Institutions of Higher education to act as centers to promote sustainable lifestyles and contribute to a sustainable future.
- Conscientising students to their surrounding environment and society.
- To help the student community to use their acquired knowledge to create and contribute to inclusive societies.
- To enable the Institutions of Higher Education and their students to disseminate the learning outcome for creating a society with peace, justice and equality.
